INFORMATION FOR CLUB MEMBERS SEEKING ELECTION AS JUNIOR VICE PRESIDENT

The following is for guidance of any MALE member of a Club affiliated to the English Indoor Bowling Association Ltd who is considering seeking election.

The Junior Vice President is known as an Officer of the Association.

The Junior Vice President will be an Officer for a total of Three years, during which time they will be required to support the President in their Match programme and at selected International Events.

An Officer is entitled to claim an agreed mileage allowance for attendance at all scheduled meetings and when officially representing the Association. The expense of overnight accommodation, at an agreed rate, may also be claimed subject to the reason to make claim, normally on the grounds of distance of ones journey. The settlement of all accounts shall be the responsibility of the individual member unless otherwise advised and appropriate claims will be submitted supported by receipts.

The rates for the various allowable expenses will be reviewed annually by the Board

All Nominees are requested to supply the following information when submitting their completed Nomination Form:

- Head and Shoulders Photograph
- Details of their personal background including any relevant qualifications, experience / qualities which would be of benefit to the Association (in not more than 100 words).

This information will be circulated to all Affiliated Members with the Final Notice of the AGM.
